VERSION 1 INSTRUCTIONS: (using beading wire and lobster clasp)

1. Cut two 24" lengths of 28G wire. Join wires together, side by side. Use a bead stopper to hold the two wires together, leaving approximately 4" tails on one end. (An alternative to using bead stoppers is to tape the wires to the work surface.)
2. Bring each wire, in opposite directions, through the hole of an 8mm glass pearl.
3. String a turquoise e-bead onto each wire and bring each wire, in opposite directions, through the hole of another 8mm glass pearl.
4. Continue repeating steps 2 and 3 (alternating turquoise, red, and lime e-beads in step 3) until you reach desired bracelet length.
5. Cut a 1 ½" length of extender chain. Use a 6mm jump ring to attach one end of the extender chain to 4mm jump ring. On one end of the bracelet, bring each wire, in opposite directions, through that 4mm jump ring and back through the last pearl, two to three times. Wrap the tail wire on each side of the pearl three times around the wire between the last pearl and the last set of e-beads. Trim the wire tails.
6. Attach a 4mm jump ring to a lobster clasp. Use the same techniques from the previous step to attach that 4mm jump ring to the other end of the bracelet.

VERSION 2 INSTRUCTIONS: (using stretch cord)

1. Repeat steps 1-4 using stretch cord instead of wire.
2. From each end of the bracelet, tie the adjoining stretch cords together into secure surgical knots. Trim excess stretch cord tails.
